1. What is the City of Hayward doing to address homelessness?

As of January 2019, approximately 487 people experience homelessness in Hayward each night, with three out of four of those individuals sleeping outside. This represents a 23% increase in the number of homeless people in Hayward since 2017 and it is likely an underrepresentation of the actual number of people experiencing homelessness in Hayward.

The City of Hayward has long identified homelessness and housing affordability as key issues in the community and has supported local efforts to address these issues in conjunction with larger regional efforts. The City of Hayward approved its own local Homelessness Reduction Strategic Plan in July 2021. The plan draws on best practices, aligns with relevant Alameda County framework and plans, and can be found online at: www.hayward-ca.gov/lets-house-hayward.

In November 2019, the City opened its first Navigation Center. Since opening, the City has opened a second Navigation Center, and together these programs have permanently housed more than 100 previously homeless Hayward residents.

In Fiscal Year 2022-2023, the City allocated $7.5 million in federal Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds to addressing the homelessness crisis. This is in addition to an annual $1.5 million contribution in City General Funds to the Hayward Navigation Center, as well as approximately $300,000 - $500,000 in City General Funds/Community Development Block Grant funds awarded to housing and homeless nonprofits through the City's annual Community Agency Funding process.

2. Someone is camped around my business/home but not on my property. Can the City move them? Who can I contact?

Yes, the City can move individuals and their encampments that pose a public health or safety concern or impede public use of sidewalks, bus stops and other public facilities. If you would like to report an encampment, please enter this request through Access Hayward. City staff from Maintenance Services, Police, Fire, Code Enforcement, Airport, Utilities & Environmental Services, and City Manager's Office meet on a bi-weekly basis to review requests for abatement.

The City can have its nonprofit homeless outreach teams conduct outreach and encourage individuals to access services. Outreach teams currently conduct outreach throughout Hayward. If there is a specific location you would like outreach at, please email navcenter.referrals@hayward-ca.gov. Outreach teams will connect with individuals and offer services to those who may be interested.

If you see signs of human waste, drug paraphernalia, fire, or other circumstances raising a public health or safety concern associated with an encampment, please contact Hayward Police Department. Please enter this request through Access Hayward: bit.ly/Access-Hayward. Your request will be responded to within 24 hours.

If your property is currently vacant, contact the District Command Unit at (510) 293-5051 and schedule an appointment to get a “no-trespass” letter filed, which are solely for vacant properties. Please note, a no-trespass letter must be renewed every six months.

If your property is not vacant, you can place no-trespass signs on your property. These signs allow Hayward Police Department to request any trespassing individuals to leave the property. If an individual refuses to leave, Hayward Police Department can issue a citation for trespassing, however as the property owner (and victim of the trespassing offense) you must approve this citation.

4. Can the City arrest people who are camping on my private property?

Yes. If your property is vacant and you have filed a no-trespass letter with the City of Hayward, then the Police Department can arrest any trespassers located on your property.
