

December 19, 2018

Jane Light
Interim Library Director
City of Hayward

Dear Jane,

After lengthy discussion and consideration, I have decided to resign from the City of Hayward Library Commission. It has been a tremendous honor to serve my community from the day Measure C came on the ballot, through the promotional campaign and the numerous City Council meetings, to opening the doors last month. I remain deeply grateful to have had the chance to contribute energy and time towards helping Hayward residents finally get the magnificent library our fine city deserves. I'm so proud of what has been accomplished with the help of so many committed colleagues. They have all inspired me on so many levels.

My personal commitments and challenges have been taking my energy and focus away from commission duties. I see this pattern continuing into the foreseeable future. I'd like to make my spot available for someone who is ready to jump into the deep end with both feet.

I wish you, the Library Committee and our new Hayward Library a prosperous, productive future. I'm also excited for Jayanti Addleman, new Director of Library Services for the City of Hayward, who will usher in a new era of greater opportunity for my community.

Sincerest regard,

Iris J. Murillo
Library Commissioner

CC: Kari McAllister, Peter Bufete