

Briggs Resources, Inc. Rendering of New Building

As part of this project, the former American Aircraft Sales office structure at 21015 Skywest Drive will be updated and modernized. Features will include expansive glass panels, stainless steel design details, and complete interior renovations. A new hangar will be constructed adjacent to the office structure that will accommodate a variety of aircraft.