HAYWARD CITY COUNCIL REPORT -- NONE

TASK FORCE UPDATES

7:00 PM Commissioner Gerardo announces that there will be a clean-up at Tennyson High School from 8:30 AM to 12:00 NN on January 28th. Participants may receive up to 4 hours of community service hours.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

7:09 PM Jaylen Francis, a reporter from CSU East Bay, will be observing for the rest of the meeting and maybe asking questions regarding the meeting and the Hayward Youth Commission.

PRESENTATION OF SURVEY

7:09 PM Commissioner Danielle presents the results of the survey she sent out to everyone that is asking the commissioners about their individual progress within their committees. Overall, the commissioners are having problems on lack of communication, undefined goals, lack of follow-through with their projects; otherwise, a large number of the commissioners feel that they are satisfied with their progress as individuals and as committees.

Ms. Snell reminds the Commission that she and the three other advisors are there to support the commissioners and help them in whatever they need. She also reminds all the commissioners that they are in the Hayward Youth Commission to be productive.

Commissioner Vivian suggests that the Commission should have a directory of everyone's contact list to make it easier for everyone to contact one another.

Commissioner Samara clarifies that the lack of communication is more within the committees and that they need more group involvement.

Commissioner Danielle suggests that each committee should have a “leader” to oversee the communication among their members and announces that she will be the one working on the directory.

7:23 PM PLANNING PROJECTS

7:56 PM GROUP PRESENTATIONS

Commissioner Samara presents for the Survey group: they are sending the surveys through e-mails, and asked Ms. Snell to print out the surveys and the committee will distribute them to the volunteers for each school and participants may drop off the surveys at the Hayward City Library. The deadline for the survey is on February 24, 2017.

Commissioner Danielle presents for the Scholarship group: the group had ordered the new shirts and will be shipped in by January 19th. The scholarships will be distributed through awards to high school students.

Commissioner Vivian presents for the Community Service group. Hopefully, by mid-February, they will present to the Hayward Unified School District board. They meet every Saturday to rehearse their presentation and will hopefully present by the next HYC meeting.

Commissioner Raveena presents for the Human Trafficking group. They have begun creating flyers for awareness about Human Trafficking. Commissioner Julian asks about the survey that the group sent and Commissioner Raveena says that the survey will be revised and resent to everyone.
